Playday Chairman Susie Gibson reported there may be no play January 24, 2024 due to weather. If cancelled she will telephone anyone who has signed up to play.

Rules Chairman Liz Starr reported she will report if there is any change to our two putt rule which is in effect.

Tournament Chairman Marilyn Lloyd reported the dates for the three tournaments which will be held in 2024

Web Master Jackie Goodwin reported everything is up to date.

Special Games Chairman Sue Thompson will be replaced by Susie Mumford who has so graciously volunteered.

Communications Chairman Jil Piasecki will continue to email Board and General Meetings Minutes and also twice a year will email information for TWAGA (Texas Women's Amateur Golf Association).

Interclub Chairman Nancy Oliver reported the CTLG (Central Texas Ladies Golf) schedule will be posted on the bulletin board.

Several ladies have volunteered to help the Salado Ladies with their CTLG Tournament.

The Squaw Valley Challenge will be held in Glen Rose this year. Nancy will have more information later. There was discussion as to whether LVWGA will continue to pay the $35.00 cost to be included in the TWAGA Competition. Nancy Oliver made a motion to pay the $35.00 and remain a member. A second was made by Pat Newton. There was more discussion and motion carried.

FINAL

Old Business:

Pat Newton explained how the Ad Campaign would be held and asked the ladies to sign up to go to the local stores with a thank you letter from Keri Schooler and also asking them to purchase their ad again this year.

New Business:

Jackie Goodwin reminded everyone that we are a member of our local Chamber of Commerce. Our Chamber has several events during the year and it would be good for our WGA to volunteer to work. Carolyn Donahue, one of our Social Members asked that we introduce ourselves with maybe a little history so we could all know each other better.

A motion was made by Liz Starr and a second by Pat Newton to adjourn.

Respectfully submitted, Betty Houghton, Secretary.
